2-11-21 Draft Minutes

In Attendance: Shawn Gillen, Joel Fobes, George Shaw, Matt Harrell, Pete Gulbranson, John Branigin, Walter Hattrich, William Moseley, Alice Jonsson

Shawn Gillen called the meeting to order at 2:01.

1. Approve Draft Minutes from 1-28-21: John Branigin pointed out that it should read “it stays the same as the current ordinance”. Re. the Noise Ordinance. George Shaw made a motion to approve. Peter Gulbranson seconded. Minutes approved with this change.

2. CIP: Joel Fobes – (AXON is the camera system used in TIPD cars and bodycams on officers.)

Went line by line through the five-year CIP.

Joel Fobes and Shawn Gillen- spoke about details of our current leases for vehicles. This will include one fully-equipped rescue for TIFD.

Joel Fobes and Shawn Gillen discussed computer program needs for TIPD. TIPD will be checking out and comparing some programs to replace Tyler program.

Connectivity Cost for Cameras – Shawn Gillen- it's worth it. We aren't stuck in it. We think it's good to stay in it because they do come in handy.

Ammunition – Shawn Gillen said keep it in 'Operations'.

Drones – Shawn Gillen supports this tool for public safety on the island.

Dispatch Upgrades - Shawn Gillen – It will take hundreds of thousands of dollars for dispatch upgrades. Joel Fobes is having pros come and check out the equipment and help form a plan for five-year spending.

TIFD:

Matt Harrell: We will purchase all new AEDs for the city – will have screens.

Shawn Gillen and Matt Harrell discussed budgeting and planning ahead for new trucks and SCBAs.

Public Safety Boat - $50,000.00

Shawn Gillen explained how we are putting money aside towards the match for the Storm Shelter.

Shawn Gillen –Peter Gulbronson made the motion to adjourn. George Shaw seconded. Meeting adjourned at 2:47.
