ACTION ITEMS

2. Recommend: Review and Discuss Juried Application Scoring Results and Recommend Traffic Box Artists to Move Forward
The committee members discussed the scoring results of the Traffic Box call to artists. The first two highest scoring artists, Claire Remsberg and Willow Wells were agreed upon but a discussion was had about choosing the third artist.

The committee members agreed that Kayla Hanson will be the third traffic box artist. Cassandra will ask Kayla if she is okay with the small box being wrapped with the historical photo that inspired her painting. If she agrees we will work on getting approval to use the image with the help of V. Ivanov.

B. King moves to approve the three highest scoring artists' (Claire Remsberg, Willow Wells, and Kayla Hanson) traffic box proposals

DISCUSSION ITEMS

3. General Updates on Projects: Chateau Park Public Art, Linder Overpass Project, WASH traffic boxes, Public Art Master Plan

Cassandra followed up about the metal bench for chateau park. Other materials would not last as long as metal and there might be budget issues changing materials at this point. There is not a safety concern with using metal as the material for the bench.

Three artists presented proposals for the Linder Overpass project to stakeholders. Cassandra reviewed the artists concepts with the public art committee. Stephanie Inman's project proposal scored the highest.

The Public Art Master Plan is currently still in the budget.

4. Recap: Transit Shelter Project and Unveiling

An unveiling for two transit shelter projects took place on Monday the 15th. There was a great turnout of members of the public, city employees, and volunteers. There was also great news coverage of the project and event by Channel 6.

5. Discuss: Public Art Temporary Mural Project at the September 14, 2024

Community Art Party

Paxton presented a rough draft of an image she designed for the community panel of the Public Art Temporary Mural Project and received feedback from the committee members. The final design will be transferred onto one of the panels prior to the event so the public can contribute to the project during the community art party.
