Comment: I've lived in Clovis 21 years.

For the past 5 years I walk on Sunnyside and Magill and see a brick wall that is broken and damaged and it awful to look at. It's clearly across from Clovis adult school and I'm wondering why the city has not fixed it in this many years.

Please fix this soon, many people in our neighborhood walk to bicentennial and this is one of the main routes. Please fix this soon and thank you.

There was a problem with a middle aged male that cursed a a child at a Clovis High homecoming game. The way it was handled was unacceptable and I want the CPD to work with stricter rules from CUSD to eject anyone that used foul language towards another person, child or other. It was just not well handled by these two officers who excused the adult by saying "well he cussed at her because he is a parent and was frustrated that his view of the game was interrupted". I do not agree with this neither as a parent or spectator. If this is the way we want this handled then we should look forward to escalation of confrontations and possible shootings as we have witnessed at Bullard High School this year.

Very disappointed Taxpayer/Parent/ Concerned Resident

Comment: I would like the School Board to consider abolishing the dress code as many other schools have been doing recently in our nation. Perhaps this time post COVID would be a perfect opportunity to try this with our schools to minimize the distractions that our children are constantly harassed with. Most dress code issues are with our girls who sometimes need to have a separate set of clothes to wear to school and is an unnecessary burden for parents who must purchase clothes that are dress code compliant and a separate set of clothes that our children want to wear. The dress code prevents girls from being able to take off their sweaters when the temperature rises in the afternoon due to the risk of exposing a cami tank with too narrow straps. These restrictions cause our children to be choose between comfort and compliance and as a parent many of us feel this as an unnecessary burden.
