In response to Commissioner Dean inquiring about a splash pad, Mayor Kilsheimer stated there was money set aside in the budget, but there was no specific area or plan. Additionally, with regards to the status of the Martin's pond project, he advised the construction of the pond is complete. The next phase is to reconstruct 6th Street as it approaches 441, and this with the next phases will be incorporated in the downtown development plan.

Commissioner Arrowsmith suggested the consultant/lobbyist be involved in the priorities from the beginning to start working on what may or may not be legislative priorities, to which Mayor Kilsheimer advised he would provide this list of priorities to the lobbyist as the consensus of the council.

OLD BUSINESS

1. COUNCIL - Commissioner Dean requested the City Attorney to provide an update regarding the Sandpiper project, to which City Attorney Shepard advised after the PUD was denied, they have come back and re-applied for R-1AAA zoning. He advised this is considered a straight zoning category and affirmed with straight zoning, there is not an opportunity to impose additional conditions, as with the PUD. He advised that staff has determined they meet every criteria for the R-1AAA zoning category which will not provide for any of the items the PUD did provide for. He affirmed Sandpiper is unique in that they were annexed and have never been assigned a zoning category in the City, which they are entitled to. He reiterated that, according to staff, they meet all the criteria for the R-1AAA zoning. He stated if there is any desire to reconsider the matter of a PUD, the Council would need to take action to do this.

Commissioner Arrowsmith said he voted against the PUD, but he felt the neighbors would be more upset if it goes to straight zoning. At this point, he stated if they can, they need to go back and discuss this further under the PUD.

City Attorney Shepard explained, according to Robert's Rules, a motion to reconsider would have to be made by one of the three that voted for the motion to deny the PUD.

MOTION by Commissioner Arrowsmith, and seconded by Commissioner Ruth, to reconsider the previous denial of the Sandpiper Ridge PUD application and schedule another discussion at the City Council meeting on January 21, 2014.

Mayor Kilsheimer opened the meeting to public participation.

Mr. Moon advised related to the R-1AAA zoning, there was a public hearing scheduled for next Tuesday before the Planning Commission and inquired if they should proceed.

City Attorney Shepard suggested it should proceed, as they do not know what the outcome of the Council meeting will be.

Suzanne Kidd inquired, for clarification, how many houses would be allowed under the R-1AAA zoning and would it be more than what was allowed under the PUD.

Mr. Moon said in a PUD the city code require the submittal of a master site plan, however, under straight zoning the code does not require the applicant to submit a subdivision plan and until a subdivision application, preliminary development plan, is submitted to staff, they will not be able to evaluate the number of lots being proposed.

No one else wishing to speak, Mayor Kilsheimer closed the public participation.

Motion carried unanimously with Mayor Kilsheimer and Commissioners Arrowsmith, Dean, Velazquez, and Ruth voting aye.

Mayor Kilsheimer said it was brought up at the last meeting to discuss council meeting times. It was the consensus of the Council to change the night meetings to 7:00 p.m.

2. PUBLIC – Ray Shackelford requested the legislative priorities be placed online for the public. He also, as a part of the transparent process, called upon the Mayor to consider putting a brief summary of his report online prior to the council meetings. He expressed concern with regards to how diverse the bands are for the Old Florida Outdoor Festival and asked for future consideration.

NEW BUSINESS

1. COUNCIL – Commissioner Dean complimented Public Services for cleaning debris from Old Dixie Highway.
2. PUBLIC – Bill Spiegel, on behalf of Rotary Club of Apopka, thanked the City for hosting the community calendar artist appreciation night. He advised the submitted artwork was on display in the atrium of City Hall. The project is designed to raise money for local youth organizations and many businesses participate making this possible as a fund raiser. Included in the back of the calendar are coupons from area businesses, as well as a VIP discount card.

Mayor Kilsheimer stated student art will be rotated on the three panels in the lobby of the Mayor's office monthly. He advised Betty Ann Huntsman has been asked to serve as art curator for City Hall.

Suzanne Kidd commented on the newsletter included in the water bills having had incorrect information recently to which Mayor Kilsheimer advised they were working on a plan to address that issue, as well as communication in general from the city.

Isadora Dean requested the legislative priorities be read out loud. She stated the Governor's two top priorities are jobs and development. She suggested the lobbyist could afford us with the opportunity of providing some summer jobs for our youth (the legislative priorities were placed on the screen and read aloud by Mayor Kilsheimer).

Ray Shackelford said he reinforced what Mrs. Dean stated and said while other organizations support youth jobs, that good quality leadership must come from the City of Apopka with a sincere commitment to our youth. He reiterated the city needs to look at summer jobs for our children as well as business development.

Mayor Kilsheimer advised Orange County Public Schools and Board Member Christine Moore are organizing the Apopka Art and Jazz Festival for January 24, 2015, at the amphitheater.

Commissioner Ruth stated Martez Ivey brought Apopka national attention on Saturday when he was awarded the United States Army Player of the Year, and suggested he be recognized for this achievement. Mayor Kilsheimer advised he will be recognized during the festivities at the Food Truck Round Up on January 8th.

Tenita Reid said she was glad to see an event center for Dream Lake listed on the legislative priorities. She further suggested a grant be looked into for bear proof trash cans.
