Vice Mayor Rosario Rodriguez explained that she was recusing from this item because she owns a restaurant with a parklet. She left the dais.

Community Development Director Pam Johns made a presentation and responded to questions from the City Council.

The following speakers addressed the City Council:

1. John Voelz
2. Karen Homes speaking on behalf of Dylan Marrow
3. Loretta Hettinger
4. Justin Raithel

After City Council discussion and clarification from staff, the City Council concurred with the following amendments:

Amend Section 12.25.010.B to add the word "reasonable" before "notice" should the City determine the need to modify or cancel the permit.

Amend Section 12.25.020.E to add the words "and design" after "proposed use" to clarify the scope of staff review in determining suitability and appropriateness of temporary outdoor dining improvements.

City Council also directed staff to bring back a fee resolution for the annual renewal permit at a lower cost than the initial annual permit. Staff will include that new renewal fee in an upcoming planning and permit processing fee analysis scheduled in 2023.

Approved 09/27/2022

Motion made by Councilmember Mike Kozlowski, seconded by Councilmember YK Chalamcherla to introduce and conduct first reading of Ordinance No. 1332.
