III. Agenda Items

1. Discussion and possible approval of an amendment to the tentative budget for the Fiscal Year ending June 30, 2025

Mayor Rubin provided context for the purpose of the Special Meeting and explained the necessity for the tentative budget amendment due to a recent Supreme Court ruling in Hideout's favor on the Richardson Flat Annexation. The council needed to include a placeholder amount in the budget to facilitate planning and professional consultations for the parcel's development.

Financial Consultant Katie Shepley presented the budget changes, noting an increase from the previously approved figures. The primary adjustment was an additional $90,000 to cover strategic development, communications, annexation strategy, and public relations. This brought the overall expected loss for Fiscal Year (FY) 25 to approximately $290,000.

Mayor Rubin clarified that the new tax rate would rise by roughly 50% but emphasized that this meeting's approval was for a placeholder figure, subject to detailed review during the Truth in Taxation Meeting to be held on August 8, 2024. Council Member Baier inquired about the rationale behind the $90,000 increase, to which Mayor Rubin and Ms. Shepley explained it was an estimated amount based on prior experience and anticipated professional service hours.

Council Member Baier expressed concerns about ensuring value for money and the efficacy of the partners engaged. Mayor Rubin assured that any contract over $15,000 would require council approval as per Hideout Town Code.

There was an emphasis on the collaborative planning approach, with Mayor Rubin mentioning planned visits to other developments and engagement with Wasatch County and Park City. The Council agreed on the importance of strategic, quality spending.

There being no further discussion, Mayor Rubin requested a motion to approve the modifications of the FY25 Tentative Budget.
