DISCUSSION ITEMS

2. Review and Discuss Current Art Week Plans

A. Belnap reviewed the schedule and plans for Art Week and highlighted details for each activity, including information below:

Free Art Classes

Registration is open for classes

The poetry class has low registrations

Leslie offered to post about the poetry class on her social media to help advertise

Subcommittee members are encouraged to participate in classes

Instructors will be paid $75 per hour

Meridian Arts Foundation Art Sip

Lizzie will host the Initial Point Gallery tour during the Art Sip

Community Art Party

Subcommittee members are encouraged to attend

Saturday Farmers Market- Art Market

No artists have signed up yet, most likely because there was not enough time for artists to prepare. Next year we can try again and start marketing in the spring, when most vendors sign up for Main Street Market

Chalk Art Competition

No artists have signed up yet, will increase marketing, already contacted the schools

Awards for the three categories (Youth, High School, and Adult) are $50 prizes.

T. Vannucci made motion to approve plans and payments, seconded by J. Cavaness-Williams

3. Review and Discuss Current Concert on Broadway Plans

The Billy Blues Band will be performing on September 11. Malinda DeBry, Mariachi Sol de Acapulco, and the Oinkari Basque Dancers have been confirmed for performances on September 25. L. Mauldin stated that the opera singer from Opera Idaho is also available and she is working to confirm with Opera Idaho. A. Belnap requested the information be sent to her so that she can draw up an agreement.
