Discussions

1. Traffic Enforcement Camera Revenue Statement

City Administrator Mulfinger walked council through the revenue statement and where funds would go from the traffic camera revenue. Seeders made suggestions on different funding levels. No other council member commented on changing the proposed funding levels.

2. Infrastructure Fund

Mulfinger showed what funds would now be allocated for street improvements. Mulfinger stated a five-year plan would be put in place and the city council would vote annually on projects.

3. 10th Street Bridge

Council member Weber requested Mulfinger bring in the bridge engineer to help the city council understand the lifespan of the bridge. Mulfinger advised he would work toward an engineer meeting on February 12. Mulfinger informed council the project will never be cheaper for the city.

4. Franchise Fee and Local Option Sales Tax Discussion

Mulfinger discussed the budget for the Franchise Fee and Local Option Sales Tax Discussion. Weber questioned the library accreditation fund.
