Special Presentations/Communications

There were no special presentations or communications at this meeting.

Reports of Officials

a. Supervisor/Treasurer

Supervisor Schumann reported that Jim Seay sent the township a letter concerning the change in electrical aggregation that the township will put on the website. Letters will be sent to the residents by ComEd.

b. Clerk

a. Cook County Sheriff's Recycling Program, Saturday, August 21st, 9:00 A.M. to 12 Noon.

Clerk Nolan reported that the Cook County Sheriff's office is willing to do another recycling event with us. I spoke with Patricia, the Director, and she felt it would look better for Palos Township if we did this sooner rather than later in the fall. She gave us our choice of four Saturdays and we chose Saturday, August 21, 2021. This event will be electronic recycling and they will collect expired medication also. This event will be for Palos Township residents only. Only one (1) TV will be allowed per resident. The truck will leave whenever it is full so the event may not last four hours. No electronics will be allowed left at Palos Township after the truck has left. This is a free event and will be published as such. Palos Township thanks the Cook County Sheriff's Division for this opportunity.

b. TOCC/MIA Township Symposium September 25, 2021. 8:30 A.M. to 1:30 P.M.

Clerk Nolan reported that TOCC/MIA is presenting a Township Symposium on September 25, 2021 from 8:30 A.M. to 1:30 P.M. at Hanover Township. Clerk Nolan attended the last Township symposium and thought it was profitable. All officials are invited to attend.
